Parent Tips

Here are some realistic and helpful tips to make the most of the summer holidays:-

Home Activities

- Themed days: Have a "water day", "cooking day", "nature day" etc.
- Mini challenges: Lego builds, drawing contests, obstacle courses.
- Gardening or nature projects: Growing sunflowers or bug hotels.
- Movie afternoons: Curtains closed, popcorn out - instant cinema.

Low-Cost Days Out

- Local museums (many are free)
- Library summer reading schemes
- Picnics in the park or woodland walks
- Visit new playgrounds or splash pads
- Local farms, open days, or nature reserves

For Your Sanity

- Tag-team if you can: Share childcare with a friend, or trade off time out for yourself.
- Take the pressure off: You don't need to make every day magical. Boredom is okay. It encourages creativity.
- Remember: Mess is temporary. You can clean up later. Or not.
