Tuesday 4th January

Dear Parent/Carers,

As you will be aware, Boris Johnson announced this evening that primary schools would move to remote education from tomorrow Tuesday 5th January 2021. Barmby Moor Primary School, including the Foundation Stage Unit, will be closed from tomorrow.

Following the Government directive, Primary schools will remain open for keyworker and vulnerable children. If you have no alternative arrangement, and your role is categorised as a keyworker (see attached list), then your child may attend school tomorrow at their normal staggered start time and be collected at their normal staggered finish time. Those children of keyworkers, who have been booked in for Breakfast Club and After School Club tomorrow or require this provision, may attend between 7:45am and 9:00am and 3:30pm and 6:00pm.

Children attending school will require a packed lunch. There will be no school meal provision available tomorrow.

More information on the following will be sent out tomorrow:

- Keyworker provision
- School Meals
- Remote Learning
- Provision for vulnerable pupils

Some remote learning will be in place tomorrow; however, the full timetable of remote learning will commence from Wednesday 6th January. Remote learning will be posted via the Seesaw app.

I would like to thank parents for your continued support throughout these times of uncertainty. We hope our school community will be back together soon.

Take care,

Mr J Baxter
