Tuesday 5th January 2021

Dear Parent/Carers,

Yesterday, Monday 4th January 2021, Boris Johnson announced that all schools would move to remote learning provision from Tuesday 5th January until February half-term. Schools will remain open to vulnerable children and the children of critical workers only.

Critical Worker Parents

If you are identifying yourself as a critical worker, as listed by the Government, and have no alternative provision for your child but to attend school, please e-mail barmbymoorschool.primary@eastriding.gov.uk by 1:00pm today, giving the following information:

- Your child's name and class.
- What your critical worker role is.
- Whether your child needs to attend full time, or on specific days.
- Do you require Breakfast and After School Clubs.

Breakfast and After School Club

Breakfast Club and After School Club provision will run as normal for critical worker parents and will be chargeable at the normal rates.

School Meals

Unless your child is eligible for benefits-related free school meals, we request that parents provide a packed lunch for their child for at least this week. More information about next week will be released in due course.

Uniform

We request that children attending school wear normal school uniform. If PE kits are required, teachers will inform parents via the Seesaw app.

Many thanks for your continued support.
